ESTABLISHED A.D. 1841.

HONGRONG, SATURDAY, MAY 25, 1889.

A RATHER important discussion took place at the last meeting of the Sanitary Board on the disposal of the city refuse. This has been long a vexed question in Hongkong. At the time fever prevailed so largely in the Western district the burning of the refuse at Mount Divis and Green Island was alleged to be one of the causes of the outbreak. Whether it was a direct cause or not, it has been established that the destruction of the refuse at these places orested a nuisance which must have prejudicially affected the health of the residonts within a pretty wide radius.

pretent this nuisance the Sanitary Board recommended that a patent destructor costing some $30,000 be obtained and the refuse thoroughly burned on a small island close to Green Island. This recommendation was made before the return to the Colony of Mr Hugh McCallum, the Secretary of the Board. Mr McCallum, during his stay at Home, had made a special study of sanitation; and before spending such a large sum $30,000, the Government thought it right to obtain his opinion on the proposal. This was very natural and very proper, but unfortunately the Government carried out its intention in a highly irregular manner. Instead of returning the Sanitary Board's report, with a request that the newly-returned Secretary be consulted and his opinion obtained, the Government treated the Board with contempt and applied direct to the Board's servant for a report. This report, which was adverse to the recommendation made by the Board, suggested that the rubbish should be conveyed to a small bay on the Western side of the Kowloon peninsula, deposited there, covered. with earth and planted with trees. Mr McCallum's proposal—the Board again being ignored-was submitted to the Har-I for use in Tropical Climates, will be bour Master, the Colonial Surgeon, and one or two others; and they having roported favourably, the Government wrote to the Sanitary Board Istating that if it had > know what were the feelings met with the other gentlemen and resolved to set aside the unanimous recommendation of the Board of which he is chairman. Perhaps, like most officials, he has learned to suppress his feelings, but even Dr Ayres was forced to admit that it would have been much better if Mr McCallum's opinion had been obtained through the Board. So much for the irregular character of the proceedings. As to the proposal itself

it seems an economical and even profitable means of getting rid of the rubbish, to reclaim a strip of shallow water by means thereof. It was mainly by the depositing of rubbish of a less objectionable character that a portion of the land at Kowleon Point, bought the other day by the Land Investment Co. at $1 a foot, was made. The rubbish, however, which it is proposed to 'dump' down on the Western side of Kow-TRANSPARENT, guaranteed to contain 5% loon is so full of organic matter that, even with the most careful treatment, it might become a serious nuisance to the district. Mr Francis proved that there is a large population in the immediate vicinity, and before the Board rejects its former scheme day. and adopts the new proposal it should demand strong proof that the disposal the rubbish will not create a nuisance. Mr McCallum thinks a nuisance will be avoided if a boat-load of surface mud follows immediately on a boat-load of THE Agent of the Pacific Mail S. S. Co. rubbish; but will not the action of the tides informs us that the City of Rio de Janeiro, tend to carry away this surface mud, and if with mails &c. from San Francisco to the any storm occurs, will not the whole fester. 2nd instant, has arrived at Yokohama, and ing mass be exposed? There is thus room to doubt whether the reclamation scheme for the disposal of the rubbish will prov so good in practice as it looks in theory It must not be forgotten also that it is only a temporary solution, and unless the Government is to go in for the reclamation of all the bays in Kowloon and DIVINE SERVICE FOR SEAMEN. -On Sunday Hongkong, we will be confronted in a year morning, between 9 and 10,30 o'clock, the or two with the old question of what to do steam launch carrying the Bethel flag will with our rubbish. The patent destructor call alongside any vessel hoisting code apparently has not proved such a secoess at pennant O., to convey men ashore to 11 Home as the Board thought it had, and s. m. service at Sa Peter's Scamen's Church, certainly more information as to its work- returning about 12.30. ing would have to be obtained before the Colony spent 830,000 for it. If the Go. THE s.s. Duke of Buckingham, which arrived vernment or the Sanitary Board wish to here yesterday, reports that Captain Turner, and a permanent solution to this question the master of the vessel, committed suicide they will have to devote a little more time by shooting himself with a revolver on the and trouble to its consideration, and per night of the 10th inst., just before the haps would do better to obtain opinions steamer reached Haiphong. Capt. Turner from Municipal authorities at Home.

WE do not wish to keep harping away at the water-supply blunder, although it is one of the chief subjects of talk in the Colony. We are glad to note that the authorities are now doing the best they can to purify the water. They can make little impression on the reservoir itself, but the water stored in the tanks seems to have been purified, and the small part of the town supplied therefrom is enjoying pure water. It is the poorer class of Chinese that are suffering most from the muddle. No attempt has been made to distribute water in the Chinese portion of the town and as the streams in the West have been closed up, the natives have great difficulty in finding water. They have either to carry it enormous distances from the tanks or scoop up dirty water on the

YESTERDAY being the 70th suniversary of the Queen's birthday, the Government offices, banks and principal houge in the colony were closed, and the accustomed haunts of the lordly broker in Queen's Road were less crowded with millionaires than usual. His Excellency the Governor held a leves at Government House, and Lady Des Votus had a reception in the afternoon, both of which functions were well attended. The day was celebrated by the customary naval and military demonstrations. The men-of-war in the harbour were all 'dressed' and royal saiutes were fired at noon. The weather being favourable, there was a large turn out spectators at the military spectacle on the parade ground in the afternoon. THE shyness of Tennyson is well known

On one occasion Mary Anderson was paying Tennyson a visit; and he was talking in his 'gameral delightful way' to our Mary in the garden, when, to the latter's surprise, the poet unpoetically took to his heels, and the fair actress was left in doubt not. Tennyson had discovered a pair of those of a nursemaid, by the way, but they had nomplussed the Laurente. It is said that sometimes when he had been apprised of the fact that there were loiterers waiting in the hope of seeing him, he had resorted to the ruse of dressing one of his labourers in the historical velvet coat and wideawake, which scheme has proved very effective, for no sooner have the patient watchers seen the hat and coat carried round the grounds on the head and shoulders of someone than their curiosity has been immediately satisfied, and they have gone away cherishing the belief that they have succeeded in stealing a glimpse of the verse composer. The Prince of That the attitude of Dr Cantlie at the Board Wales strolled over to Freshwater one day, while staying at Osborne, to see Tennyson. This generous offer finally roused the Foreign Ministers and the Tanng-Yarnen, and the Anding was bought. Muny years clapsed and many meetings were hald; until finally the work is being undertaken by our genial host, Kung Taotai. to whom it will be an honour and a lasting moniorial that his name will be ever associated with this great work. I am bleased to be able to testify to his uniform readiness to meet foreigners in all possible ways; and we may take this occasion as a beginning of mutual co-operation in good work for the benefit of this great entrepot of North China, this grand emporium, Shanghai, With these good relations and this mutual comity we shall work on band-in-hand and without friction. Peace will be comented our relations grow stronger, and progress power of China herself increased, to the hapcheer which we have so heartily enjoyed ; and I express the sentiments of usall Mr Kung, when I hope that when you leave your present office, it will be to fill a higher post, and will its duties as well.

HOW PILLS ARE MADE.

The Custom of taking medicine in the form of pills dates for back in hisuseful, drugs. To what vast dimensions pill-taking has grown may be imagined when we say that in England alone about 2,000,000,000 (two thousand million) pills are consumed, every year. In early days pills were made slowly by hand, as the demand was comparatively small. To-day they are produced with infinitely greater rapidity by mnchines especially contrived for the purpose, and with greater accuracy, too, in dients employed.

No form of medication can be detter occurs the difficulty. Easy as it may One of the most characteristic methods popular use.
